

FEUDISTS IN JAIL

Twelve Men Voluntarily Surrender at Baxter, Fla.

MAKES TOTAL OF TWENTY

Vendetta Between Duncans and Altmans Considered at an End. Prisoners Carried to Jacksonville.

Twelve of the men accused of being implicated in the killing of Deputy Sheriff Thrift at Baxter, Fla., Thursday night came into town Saturday morning and surrendered to Sheriff Herndon. The men had sent word during the night that they would surrender at 8 o'clock a. m., but all were on hand at 7:45 o'clock. Those surrendering, in addition to the eight arrested Friday, were Charles Altman and Hillary Altman, who are charged with the murder of Jackson Duncan and the negro, Jim Riley, on the train; Jesse Altman, who shot W. N. Duncan, father of Jackson Duncan, in front of the Baxter postoffice; Andrew Harvey and Ivey Harvey, charged with being members of the mob with Jesse Altman; Aaron Dowling, William Dowling, Alonzo Dowling, William Dowling, Jr., W. H. Johns, George Johns and Cawley Johns.

All of the men were taken on board a special train and left at once for Jacksonville under guard of Wilson battery, of that city.

Jesse Altman had been hiding out alone and came in by himself. The others came in together, with a few friends.

Hillary Altman has a bad gunshot wound in the right shoulder, which was dressed by a surgeon attached to the troops. He was evidently shot at the time the mob attacked Deputy Sheriff Thrift, who killed Riley Dowling. None of the others were wounded.

Both companies of troops left the special. W. N. Duncan and son, Marshall Duncan, will remain at Baxter. Their wounds are not considered fatal, but they cannot be moved.

Sheriff Herndon and deputies have the situation well in hand and no more trouble is anticipated.

Sheriff Mattox, of Charlton county, Ga., who arrived in Baxter Saturday morning, said that while he was perfectly willing for the prisoners to be locked up in the Duval county jail, at Jacksonville, for safe keeping, he intended to try and secure the men charged with committing the crime in his county and have them tried in that county. When asked what steps he intended to take, Sheriff Mattox stated that he intended to telegraph Governor Terrell and ask him to make a requisition on the governor of Florida for the delivery to the Charlton county authorities of Charles and Hillary Altman, the men charged with the killing of Jackson Duncan and the negro, Jim Riley, on the train, which was then in Charlton county. Until the governors agree in regard to the proper custody of the prisoners, Sheriff Mattox is perfectly willing to allow the prisoners to remain in the Duval county jail.

The Florida authorities will probably claim Hillary Altman, because when he gave himself up Saturday morning he had the military surgeon dress three gunshot wounds, which are considered as showing that he was in the mob that killed Deputy Sheriff Thrift.

MILL OWNER BANKRUPT.

Smith Whaley, Interested in Various Southern Cotton Plants, Driven to the Wall.

A special from Boston, Mass., states that owing over a million dollars and with assets of $1,200, William B. Smith Whaley, the financial supporter of several cotton manufacturing enterprises in the south, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in the United States district court in that city Wednesday. Mr. Whaley was the senior member of the William B. Smith Whaley Company.

For some time he has been interested in raising funds for textile industries in the southern states, particularly in South Carolina, which have not resulted favorably. Mr. Whaley's total liabilities are $1,114,125. The secured claims amount to $1,087,951, and the unsecured to $26,174.

In his petition Mr. Whaley states that his only assets are personal property valued at $1,100, real estate worth $100 and household goods. There are ninety-one creditors. The individual claims range from $500, the lowest to $175,000, the highest. Among the principal secured creditors are Merchants national bank, New York, $175,000; The Draper Company, Hopedale, Mass., $107,000; Fales & Jenk, Machine manufacturers, Pawtucket, R. I., $107,000; Baltimore Trust and Deposit Company, Baltimore, $45,000; J. C. Sheehan, Baltimore, $25,000; Carolina national bank, Columbia, S. C., $10,024; Merchants national bank, Baltimore, $10,000; Orangeburg Manufacturing Company, Orangeburg, S. C., $10,000.

The largest unsecured claim, $10,000, is for money advanced by the Olympic cotton mills, Columbia, S. C. F. L. Norton, Mr. Whaley's counsel, states in regard to the petition:

"While nominally it appears to be a large failure it is not nearly so bad as it looks. The obligations are distributed from New York to South Carolina. Mr. Whaley was interested in financing these southern mills, and in a measure, they have fallen down."

CANDIDATE TIBBLES ACCEPTS.

Vice Presidential Nominee of People's Party Issues His Letter.

At Lincoln, Neb., Tuesday, Thomas H. Tibbles, nominee of the people's party for vice president, mailed his letter of acceptance to the Hon. S. S. Williams, chairman of the notification committee. The letter was in part as follows:

"We look forward with confidence to the coming of the time not far in the distance when the principles of the people's party shall guide the rulers of the nation. The adherents of the people's party come from all classes, wherever a man is found, whose lives mankind and where governments are instituted among men, not for the purpose of enabling a few to gather gold and pile it up mountain high, but for the purpose of advancing the human race, bringing gladness to the hearts of all the people, enabling them throughout the development of the mind to enjoy the delights of the intellectual world and lay up treasures that all the cycles of time cannot corrode. To this work more than a million men have consecrated themselves. They are found among the wealthy and in the ranks of the proletariat, among the professional classes and among the wage earners, wherever a heart yearns to see our mountains and valleys, our cities and plains inhabited by a people whose heads are clear, whose hearts are loving and whose hands are adept at all things useful. They seek not the advantage of one class, but of all classes. They believe that the principles enunciated in our platform will furnish a foundation for the building up of such a nation and such a people."

HURTS DEMOCRATS

Many Lynchings Deplored by Campaign Managers.

MAY AFFECT ELECTION

Eyes of Republican Managers are Upon Georgia and Recent Episodes Will Be Kept to the Front.

A New York special says: There is an air of gloom hanging over the inner circles at democratic headquarters and the cause of it is news from Georgia which is given great prominence in the republican newspapers. Right on the heels of the report that the governor of Georgia had taken positive steps toward the investigation and punishment of the militia which failed to do its duty at Statesboro comes the report of another Georgia lynching, and, if reports be true, for an ordinary killing which the state courts had full power to handle. Whatever defense there may be for lynching for other crimes, it seems from the reports published here there could be none for this latest case.

The democratic managers feel very much as if they might just as well fold up their tents and close headquarters, so far as this campaign is concerned, if there is to be a continuation of these lynching stories from the southern states. It is incredible to them that the southern people do not realize the immense damage such affairs do to the democratic cause. Here are the democratic managers seeking to impress the country that the democratic party is a great law and order, a great constitutional party and pointing to the southern states to illustrate their contention that the masses of democracy in that section of the country, which is their stronghold, are conservative; and yet almost every day they have to face some such illustration at the south as that furnished by Statesboro and Celatown and Royston, and other points in the south.

The republican newspapers, realizing the effect of these southern Lynchings upon sentiment at the north, where respect for the law is ingrained, are not only seeing that the news reports are magnified in all their newspapers, but are preparing to scatter broadcast campaign documents containing lynching statistics. It is understood they are having the same material put into large posters to be posted on billboards and other convenient places in every corner of every doubtful state. West Virginia republicans are particularly jubilant over developments, claiming that this record of Lynchings alone will carry that state for Roosevelt and Fairbanks. They have been fearful lest the great popularity of Senator Davis with the working classes, black as well as white, would lose them the state; but now they talk confidently of holding in line every negro vote, as well as the vote of every white republican, and if they do they will have a good majority.

SUMMARY OF WAR NEWS

Russians are Conducting Reconnoissances and Have Frequent Conflicts With Jap Outposts.

A dispatch has been received in St. Petersburg from General Kuropatkin announcing that Generals Rennenkampf and Samsonoff are conducting important reconnoissances which have resulted in heavy fighting with many casualties.

From General Kuropatkin's telegram, which was dispatched at 6 o'clock Monday evening, it appears that General Rennenkampf has recovered from his wound and resumed command of his troops. The reconnoissances disclosed a further increase in the Japanese forces at Yental and Rentziaputze. The Russians have occupied several villages near the Japanese lines.

A dispatch to a London news agency from St. Petersburg says the reconnoissances were toward the Japanese front and right flank, resulting in the Japanese being driven back. The Russian losses, according to this version, are said to be slight and it is not clear whether the many casualties referred to by General Kuropatkin were inflicted or received.

Kuropatkin to Avoid Battle. While still insisting that General Kuropatkin has sufficient troops at Mukden to contest the Japanese advance, the war office in St. Petersburg admits that it is not likely that a decisive battle will be fought there. Everything goes to show that the main Russian position is now at Tie Pass, flanked by hills out on the left and by the river on the right.

Official reports to the war office are to the effect that the Japanese did not make any further move towards Mukden until Sept. 17th, when reconnoissances in force disclosed that they were still massing at Yental and Rentziaputze. No Japanese have been discovered east of the latter point.

More Troops for Kuropatkin. Acting on the advice of his military advisors, Emperor Nicholas has decided to form a second Manchurian army. It will be formed of the corps which are being sent to the far east, and Lieutenant General Linovitch probably will be given the command of the second army. General Kuropatkin will become chief of both armies, but probably without the title of commander-in-chief.

CIVIL ACTION PROBABLE.

Governor Terrell Willing to Assist in Prosecution of Statesboro Mob.

An Atlanta dispatch says: Governor Terrell was seen by a representative of the Associated Press and gave out a statement to the effect that the civil authorities may yet take a hand in the Statesboro affair.

"If the Bullock county grand jury will return indictments against a member or members of the mob which burned Reed and Cato at the stake, I will request Attorney General Hatt to attend the session of the court and aid in the prosecution of the men who trampled on the laws of Georgia," said Governor Terrell. "It is not within the province of the attorney general to take the initiative, but if Bullock county will do its part the people may rest assured that every offender will be brought to justice."

The state constitution prevents the governor from acting directly against the sheriff or any one who might have been connected with the crime. The county officers can only be removed by the grand jury for malfeasance in office.

ASSAILING REDOUBT

Japs Resume Assault on Port Arthur With More Vigor.

ACTIVE AROUND MUKDEN

Both Sections of Mikado's Army Begin Work at the Same Time and "Something Doing" is Expected.

Port Arthur is again the center of interest as regards the war in the Far East. A general attack by land and sea is regarded as likely to follow the Japanese assault upon the redoubt protecting the water supply of the fortress and town, and participation of the fleet under Admiral Togo is looked for. In this latter event it is expected that the remnants of the Russian squadron in the port will sail forth to engage the Japanese ships. Eight and possibly nine Japanese divisions are reported to be advancing on Mukden and another battle between the armies under General Kuropatkin and Kuropatkin is imminent. St. Petersburg has heard that the Russian Baltic squadron has been reinforced by four war ships purchased from Argentina.

A special from Shanghai says: The general attack on Port Arthur, which began Tuesday and in which the Japanese fleet is co-operating, was resumed Wednesday morning. The Japanese captured two important forts on either side of Suleyev, north of Port Arthur.

Authoritative information has been received in Chefoo of a general attack upon Port Arthur by the Japs.

This is the attack for which the mikado's forces have been preparing for the last nineteen days with slight hope of success. As forecasted in these dispatches, the Japanese attack on Port Arthur is directed mainly against the northeast front. The main object is to capture the fortifications on Kikwan mountain, Rippling mountain and the intermediate forts.

The foregoing comes from a Russian of standing whose previous information has been correct. He adds that the attack at the end of August, which was reported as two separate assaults, really constituted a ten days' battle. Although the Japanese retreated August 31 along the lower part of the line, they remained in four supplementary forts on the northwestern front, which they had captured from the Russians. This included four forts, 50 yards from Rippling mountain, and two others at a somewhat greater distance. Since August 31st the Japanese have bombarded very slightly, while the Russians have been throwing approximately one thousand shells daily, chiefly against the four Japanese positions mentioned. Small sorties, as referred to in Novi Kral of Port Arthur in the efforts to recapture the forts have been of almost nightly occurrence and have been uniformly unsuccessful.

The Japanese have been taught wholesome respect for the resisting power of the fortress, according to every Japanese who has recently arrived at Chefoo from Port Dalry.

TREATY RILES RUSSIANS.

England Accused of Duplicity in Dealing With Tibetans.

With the arrival in St. Petersburg of the full text of the British treaty with Tibet, the irritation of the Russian press at its sweeping character is more pronounced. The Russ, which is now considered especially to reflect the views of the foreign office, bitterly complains that Great Britain has gone beyond her promises concerning the expedition, by acquiring a virtual protectorate over Tibet, whereas she had pledged herself merely to regulate trade relations between India and Tibet.

LYNCHERS MURDERERS.

So Declare Huntsville Ministers in Special Sermons Preached on Subject of "Outraged Law."

No incident or rumor disturbed the tranquility of the military standing guard around the jail at Huntsville, Ala., Sunday. No further arrests have been made in connection with the Maples lynching.

It is positively known that several of the indicted parties have left the country. One of them has been heard from in Salt Lake City, and two were last heard from in Texas, making their way to Mexico. Three others have left no trace behind.

United States secret service men have been engaged to collect evidence against the mob that attacked the jail.

The members of the Ministers' Union, practically every Protestant pastor in the city, preached a special sermon on outraged law and unusually large congregations heard them.

Rev. George E. Boyd, presiding elder of the Methodist district conference, took the text, "The powers that be are ordained of God," and said that those who participated in that disgraceful mob and lynched that brutal negro are individually guilty of murder before Almighty God.

"Mob violence; what are we going to do about it?" was the subject of a sermon by Rev. B. G. Mitchell, of the First Cumberland Church, who condemned lynching as a punishment for any crime.

Rev. Frank P. Culver, a member of the grand jury that is investigating the lynching, took as his text: "The land is full of bloody crimes, and the city full of violence." He held that the carnival of gambling that has existed in Huntsville is responsible for outraged law, as well as the failure of officers to enforce the vagrancy laws.

Culver charged that every member of the mob is a murderer, and should be convicted of that crime. He said the mob should have been repulsed in its attack on the jail, even if it had resulted in the loss of life.

Rev. Francis Tappi, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, said public sentiment means arousing in opposition to mob violence, if the officers of the law continue to be powerless on an occasion like this.

DEATH TAKES YOUNG BISMARCK.

Georgia Governor Offers $250 for Each Member of Franklin County Mob.

Governor Terrell, of Georgia, took a firm stand on the lynching question by offering a reward of $250 each for the arrest and conviction of any of the men who participated in the lynching of John Ware, the negro hung by a mob in Franklin county on Sunday afternoon.

Ware, the negro lynched by the mob, shot and killed C. Y. Daniel, a citizen of Danielsville.
